

Programs to enrich your child's social and emotional development

Date: Saturdays & weekday afternoon during each school term *

Venue: Canning Vale Community Centre - Cnr Waratah & Eucalyptus Boulevard, Canning Vale

About the Program

◆ The Life Skills for Kids Programs are specialised resilience programs for children designed to help prepare them to manage life stresses better by teaching them both emotional coping skills and relationship skills.

◆ The groups are facilitated by experienced registered clinical psychologists, and have been operating since 2002.

◆ The programs are aimed at all children aged 6-12 years, including those experiencing bullying, friendship problems, low self-confidence or difficulties with emotions such as sadness, anger or anxiety, within a supportive small group environment.

◆ The specific skills covered in the comprehensive 6 week social and emotional skills program include:

1. Identifying & understanding feelings & friendship skills
2. Communication skills & friendship making skills
3. Coping and emotional management skills
4. Helpful self-talk & bullying management strategies
5. Conflict resolution skills – assertiveness & negotiation
6. Review

◆ Children who attend the group are of a similar age, with approximately 8-10 children in each group.

◆ Program includes an initial individual appointment, 6 weekly group sessions, and an individual follow-up appointment to discuss specific feedback about your child in the group.

◆ Places limited – bookings essential.

Fees & Rebates

$580 includes 8 Clinical Psychology Sessions (2 individual sessions & 6 weekly 90-minute group sessions). Medicare & Health rebates can apply to reduce the final cost to $220 out of pocket.

Please note: Medicare Rebates may apply through the 'Better Access to Mental Health Care Initiative' if assessed eligible via a GP, private paediatrician or psychiatrist. If seeking a referral via your GP, a 'GP Mental Health Treatment Plan (items 2700, 2701, 2715 or 2717)' must be completed (please book a double appointment).
